

Die Weihnachtsgeschichte

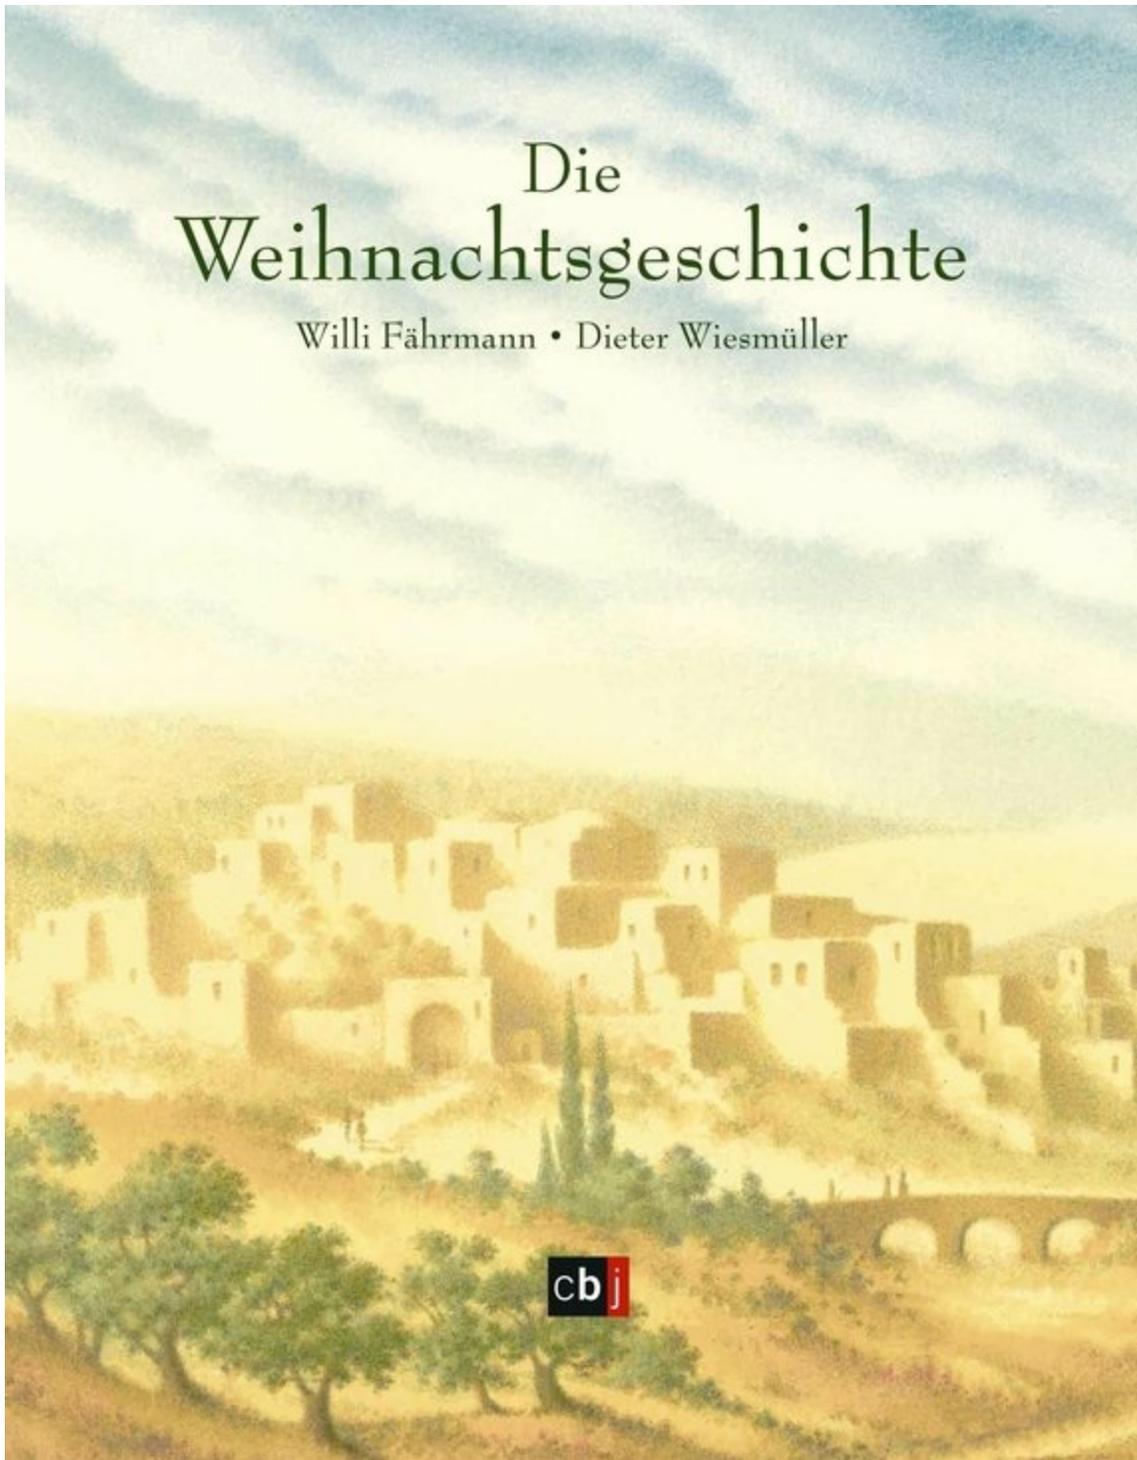

Willi Fähmann · Dieter Wiesmüller

The background of the cover is a painting depicting the Three Kings on their journey. They are shown in silhouette against a vibrant sunset sky with a large sun and a star in the dark blue upper portion. The figures are walking across a rounded hill. One figure is riding a donkey, while the other two are walking, one holding a staff. The overall color palette is dominated by warm oranges, yellows, and greens, with a dark blue sky at the top.
